

Backward and Forward

The children have lost their sense of wonder
Preacher's words have no thunder,
The Elders only talk and ponder,
While the future is put asunder
And the grass isn't greener over yonder,

The grass isn't greener over yonder,
The future seem put asunder,
The Elder only talk and ponder,
Preacher's words have no thunder,
And the children have lost their sense of wonder.
