

On the Road

I should have been on the road to college,
But I'm going to prison instead,
I wish I would have listen,
And now its messing with my head,

I'm on the road to prison,
Passing colleges alone the way,
Now I realize the cost for banging was much more,
Then I could afford to pay,

I should have been on the road to college,
The university of bricks and steel for me
A 20 year curriculum before I earn my degree

Half of Something leaves us nothing

One brother goes to prison,
One goes to the university,
No matter how we look at it,
50 percent is still a failing grade for me

One brother in prison earning a GED,
One brother walks across the stage,
And earns his college degree,
But no matter how we look at it,
50 percent is still an "F" to me
