

Wondering Star

Little girls placed in the police car,
I wonder where their daddies are,
Should she wish upon a star?
How did we are get so far?
We look, cry and wonder why,
Up above the world so high,
Maybe hope is just a lie,
They took her away in the police car.
I wonder where their daddies are,
No twinkle for our little star.

JR@THOUGHT/2012

Thought University