To Whom it May Concern:

J R. Futrell is a well respected leader in the field of education and working with trauma exposed young people. He is a pioneer in developing creative, effective programs and strategies that improve the outcomes for adolescent girls and boys.

I have known Mr. Futrell professionally for over 5 years. He revitalized the Purdue Center of Hope Renewal Place tutoring program for homeless boys and girls. He initiated a fresh innovative approach that created an amazing atmosphere for learning. Mr. Futrell is dedicated, passionate and has an impeccable work ethic. He has an abundance of integrity and is the consummate professional in the field of urban issues.

Any further information needed please don't hesitate to contact me. (901) 260-9132
